

Wind Measurements

Only independent and professional wind measurements convince your potential investor and insurance company of the financial viability of your project.

As physicists with many years of experience in wind measurement technology, we generate measurement data that validate the quality of your location.

Range of Services:

- >> Erection of wind measurement towers
- >> Dimensioning and production of measuring booms in accordance with standards
- >> Procurement and calibration of the measurement technology to MEASNET, DKD
- >> Installation and commissioning
- >> Documentation to international standards
- >> Performance and monitoring of the measurement
- >> Read-out and evaluation of the data
- >> Monthly handover of measurement data
- >> Production of measurement reports and wind expertises

